RECOMMENDATION

Accept a donation from YOGAqua, consisting of two Stand-Up Paddleboard (SUP) Yoga classes led by certified YOGAqua instructors, including all necessary equipment, held on July 14, 2017, and other in-kind contributions with an estimated value of One Thousand, Eight Hundred Dollars ($1,800.00) in support of the CLASS Parks Adventure Summer Program.

SUMMARY

YOGAqua has generously provided the Department of Recreation and Parks (RAP) with a donation of products and in-kind services valued at approximately One Thousand, Eight Hundred Dollars ($1,800.00) in support of the CLASS Parks Adventure Summer Program.

The donation included two SUP Yoga classes led by certified instructors, for the CLASS Parks Adventure Summer Program youth, which were conducted on July 14, 2017. Each class was approximately one hour long, including paddle instruction, paddling, and yoga on an anchored paddle board. Classes were conducted at Mothers Beach, 13977 Palawan Way, Marina Del Rey, CA 90292. The retail value of YOGAqua's private classes are Sixty Dollars ($60.00) per person.

This program is designed to teach beginner students how to properly use a paddleboard, and yoga instruction that is suitable for all practice levels. CLASS Parks was pleased to incorporate a collaboration with YOGAqua into their Adventure Summer Program this year. There were a total of thirty (30) participants from Costello Recreation Center, Algin Sutton Recreation Center, Hazard Recreation Center, and Cypress Recreation Center that were able to experience SUP Yoga for the first time. At the end of each class, YOGAqua provided each teen with a Reebok goody bag to take home.
